A message from Principal's desk.....

"I slept and dreamt that life was joy. I awoke and saw life was service. I acted and behold, service was joy."

These words of Rabindranath Tagore underscore the basic tenets of our pedagogical practices and we provide you with a glimpse of these in this edition of our Newsletter.

At Loreto Day School, Bowbazar we empower our students with the vision of Mary Ward, our Founder and seek to awaken them to the presence of God in all things. We believe that through this awareness ordinary moments are transformed into valued experiences that lend meaning and richness to our lives.

This realization helps us to grow in Felicity, rendering us cheerful givers and promoting an inner Freedom that enables us to do good and refer all to God. Our goal is to inculcate in our students a disposition that would motivate them to act with Sincerity, so that they are "such as they appear" and "appear such as they are," and with Justice, thereby recognizing and upholding human dignity. The values that they imbibe in this institution encourage them to strive for Verity and seek the truth about the mystery of God and their special purpose on earth as women.

The core principles that define our students are exemplified in the words of Tagore:

My Lord- strike, strike at the root of penury in my heart

Give me the strength lightly to bear my joys and sorrows

Give me the strength to make my love fruitful in service.

Give me the strength never to disown the poor or bend my knees before insolent might.

And give me the strength to raise my mind high above daily trifles.

And give me the strength to surrender my strength to Thy will with love.

(Rabindranath Tagore)

In conclusion I wish to express my gratitude to all of you for your unstinting support and cooperation without which none of our initiatives would bear fruit. I pray that God may bless you and yours, with abundant Grace.
